

ORILLIA MUSEUM OF ART & HISTORY

The Orillia Museum of Art & History (OMAH) is the steward of the community's art, local history and culture through active engagement and responsiveness. The museum designs and creates exhibitions and programs that inspire the community to explore, experience and engage.

OMAH is an essential service to our community. Our job is to hold a mirror up to Orillia and the area to stimulate and guide discussions around culture. Since we are not bound by a specific area of the community's history or by a specific presentation format, we are equipped to reflect the full range of Orillia culture back to itself and to export that reflection to other markets. OMAH inspires creativity and celebrates history.

OMAH is seeking energetic and creative individuals that have a passion for art and history to join our educational program instructor team for both in-person and online programs. The ideal candidates for these positions will have experience working with children in an educational capacity and have visual arts experience. Training will be provided. Applicants must also have a strong and reliable internet connection, knowledge of the Google Meet and Zoom platforms and knowledge of Youtube and video sharing in order to deliver virtual programs. Instructors are required to teach programs with both art and history components and should be comfortable instructing students of various ages (kindergarten to grade 8). Hours for this position vary and are based on the number of programs booked.

Rate of pay: Start $16/hour
